UNC System Staff Assembly

Established in 2006 under System President Erskine Bowles, the UNC System Staff Assembly is an advisory body to the UNC System President on behalf of the SHRA and EPS Employees who represent the staff of the UNC System's 17 constituent institutions.

Members and the Chair of the NC State Staff Senate serve as delegates to the Staff Assembly, representing the interests of NC State's staff.

The Staff Assembly serves in parallel function with the University Faculty Assembly and the Association of Student Governments to address the concerns and interests of individual institutions and the System.
